Virtual event co-organised by GANHRI-UNDP-OHCHR and co-sponsored by the Permanent Missions of Australia, Bangladesh, Costa Rica and Norway

The human rights dimension of COVID-19: the role and experiences of NHRI

Monday | 28 September 2020 | 15.00-16.30 hours CEST

This event will discuss the roles and experiences of NHRI in addressing human rights implications of COVID-19 including based on initial findings from the research commissioned by GANHRI-UNDP-OHCHR (TPP partners).

Agenda

High-level opening

H.E. Sally Mansfield, Ambassador, PM of Australia to the UN
Freddy Carrión Intrigio, incoming GANHRI Chairperson and Defensor del Pueblo of Ecuador
Asako Okai, Assistant Secretary General and Director, Crisis Bureau, UNDP
Georgette Gagnon, Director, FOTCD, United Nations Human Rights Office

Panel

Lone Lindholt, Senior Researcher
Lyudmyla Denisova, Ukrainian Parliamentary Commissioner for Human Rights (video-statement)
Anas Abbas, Commissioner, High Commission for Human Rights of Iraq
Bernard Mogesa, CEO, Kenya National Commission on Human Rights

Chair of the event: H.E. Tine Mørch Smith, Ambassador, PM of Norway to the UN

Format and logistics

Online event via Zoom, with simultaneous interpretation into Spanish

Registration

For more information, visit GANHRI webpage or contact: webinars@ganhri.org